Dearest mother,

I was glad to get your letter from Michigan City, short as it was. I am glad to say I did not find the string pyjamas. Maybe you sent them to Robert.

I am having my green dress made over. The dressmaker gasped at the way it was sewed up. I shall have to have the skirt of the blue & tan remodeled. The pleats are bow-legged and it does not hang evenly. I imagine it will all come to about $5. Do you suppose dad would send me a check for it?

Please send: Lux, Blondex, blank check book, the books I asked for in last letter, etc. in next laundry case. Oh yes, cookies, if you have time. This has been a big week-end for a lot of the girls, for the societies announced their pledges, gave their pledge dinner, had initiation, etc. Sometimes feel that college is a big disappointment because I am out of things. I certainly would never advise anyone to transfer.

One misses so much of the college life.

Julia Rose called me up this afternoon but I was not here.

Betty Bradstreet & I had a little reunion yesterday - went to the Vil together, took a little walk, & had tea in Betty's room.
She invited me to a dance they are giving Nov. 17 at Bebe and is going to get me a date with an M. I. T. ("Tech") student.

I am now in a ferment trying to think up some pentameter lines for Tuesday. I'm afraid my brain is not very prolific at present.

Gräti and I are becoming pretty good friends - in spite of herself! Su! Ha!
She's always had about all she wanted, and is perhaps a little spoiled. She is one of the highlights here at college and goes with the elite, etc. She is naturally very likeable, however.

I see quite a lot of Betty Barrett. She is a fine student - especially in sciences.

Please write as often as you can.
Tell me about everyone at home. Have the K's gone on their vacations?

Much love to mother and Gina

P.S. I am out of raphkins. Only one came back this time.
